

Richard, lives in Dallas with his wife Rosemary, and their teen son, Timothy. A musician and Bible expositor, Richard is a graduate of Nyack College (Bachelor of Music, majoring in piano and voice) and Princeton Theological Seminary (Master of Divinity, majoring in preaching).

On the lighter side, Richard is a scuba diver, motorcyclist, Segway rider, animal lover, and instrument rated airplane pilot. He is president of R. A. Farmer, LLC, a company that provides speaking and music services to churches and corporations.

Rosemary , graduate of Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, is an educator by training, a homemaker and occasional substitute teacher.